1. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, to settle Subject Claims pursuant to the following Settlement Procedures:

- a. The Debtors may, in accordance with the Settlement Procedures, and exercising their reasonable business judgment, settle Subject Claims in the ordinary course of business and may choose to document and reduce to writing a settlement agreement where necessary and appropriate.
- b. The Debtors will not agree to any settlement of a Subject Claim unless it is reasonable in the judgment of the Debtors upon consideration of: (i) the probability of success if the claim is litigated or arbitrated; (ii) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of any litigation or arbitration with respect to the claim; (iii) other factors relevant to assessing the wisdom of the settlement; and (iv) the fairness of the settlement vis-à-vis the Debtors' estates, creditors, and shareholders.
- c. In settling a Subject Claim, the Debtors may provide a release to a Settling Party or other third party where appropriate.
- d. With regard to any Settlement Amount equal to or less than $200,000 or any settlement of any dollar amount that merely changes the identity of the Debtor against which such claim is asserted, the Debtors shall be authorized to settle any Subject Claim without prior approval of, or notice to, the Court or any other party in interest; provided, however, that if (i) (a) the amount asserted in a Debtor Claim is more than $200,000 or (b) the amount asserted in a Debtor Claim cannot be determined, and (ii) the Settlement Amount with regard to such Debtor Claim that is a Subject Claim is less than $200,000, then the Debtors shall provide written notice, by e-mail, of the material terms of the settlement of such Debtor Claim that is a Subject Claim to: (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) counsel to the Creditors' Committee, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP; (iii) counsel to the group of holders of the Debtors' Convertible Notes, Paul Hastings LLP; and (iv) counsel to the Equity Committee, Vinson & Elkins LLP; and (v) counsel to B. Riley Commercial Capital, LLC, Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP (collectively, the "Settlement Notice Parties") and the notice and objection procedures set forth in section e below shall apply.

- e. With regard to any Settlement Amount greater than $200,000 but equal to or less than $2,000,000:
 - i. The Debtors shall provide written notice, by e-mail, of the material terms of the settlement of such Subject Claim (the "Settlement Notice") to the Settlement Notice Parties. Any Settlement Notice regarding a proposed settlement of a Subject Claim shall also include the Debtors' good faith estimate of the value of such claim.
 - ii. Any objections to a proposed settlement set forth in a Settlement Notice must be made in writing to counsel for the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10153, Attn: Ray C. Schrock, Esq., Ronit J. Berkovich, Esq., and Moshe A. Fink, Esq. and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, 700 Louisiana, Suite 1700, Houston, TX 77002, Attn: Alfredo R. Pérez, Esq. within seven (7) days after the date of delivery of the Settlement Notice (the "Settlement Objection Deadline"). For the avoidance of doubt, delivery via e-mail of an objection to a proposed settlement shall be sufficient.
 - iii. If any Settlement Notice Party properly and timely objects to any proposed settlement by the Settlement Objection Deadline, and the Debtors, in their sole discretion, still desire to enter into the proposed settlement with the Settling Party, the execution of the settlement shall not proceed except upon (i) resolution of the objection by the applicable Settlement Notice Party, or (ii) Court approval of the proposed settlement.
 - iv. Should a hearing on a Settlement be required pursuant to the Settlement Procedures, the Debtors are authorized to schedule their request to approve the Settlement for a hearing on shortened notice following the Settlement Objection Deadline.
 - v. In the absence of any such objection by the Settlement Objection Deadline, or prior to the Settlement Objection Deadline if the Settlement Notice Parties consent, the Debtors may enter into, execute, and consummate a written agreement of settlement that will be binding on the Settling Party and the Debtors and their estates without further Court order.

- f. Any settlement that is not authorized pursuant to the foregoing Settlement Procedures, or pursuant to any other order of this Court, will be authorized only upon separate order of this Court upon a motion served upon the necessary parties in interest.
- g. On a quarterly basis, beginning thirty (30) days after entry of an Order granting this Motion, the Debtors will provide to the Settlement Notice Parties a report of all Settlements the Debtors entered into during the previous quarter pursuant to the Settlement Procedures. Such reports will set forth the name of the parties with which the Debtors have settled a Subject Claim, the asserted amount (if applicable), the types of Subject Claims asserted by each settling party, and the Settlement Amount and other terms for which such Subject Claims were settled.
- h. Subject to the requirements of the Settlement Procedures, the Debtors are authorized to fix the allowed amount and priority of a settled Subject Claim pursuant to any applicable agreement between the Debtors and the Settling Party without further order of this Court, and such agreement shall be fully binding upon the Settling Party and the applicable Debtor's estate.

2. Any Creditor Subject Claim that is settled pursuant to the Settlement Procedures shall be allowed in accordance with the applicable settlement agreement and shall be satisfied in accordance with a chapter 11 plan for the Debtors as confirmed by the Court.

3. The Settlement Procedures shall not apply to (i) any claim held by a Debtor against an Insider (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), (ii) any claim held by an Insider against a Debtor, (iii) any claim held by a Debtor against any non-Debtor affiliate or (iv) any claim held by a non-Debtor affiliate against any Debtor.

4. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

5. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order.

6. Nothing set forth in the Motion or in this Order is intended to be or shall be deemed as a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's respective rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable non-bankruptcy law.

7. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and/or enforcement of this Order.
